SAYS MRS. CABANNE DREW A REVOLVER.

Edward Neubert Makes This Alla gation in Suit Filed at Clayton.

thiel Cabanne, was charged in a damage suit filed in the Clayton Circuit Court yesterday with drawing a revolver on Edward Neubert and ordering him to get out of her way after her husband's automobile had collided with his conveyance.

The suit was filed by Neubert and he charges Mr. Cabanne with the same act. The suit was filed by Neubert and he charges Mr. Cabanne with the same act. The litigation is the outcome of the collision which occurred April 25, 1892, while Duthiel Cabanne was on his way to the St. Louis Courthouse to attend the damage suit that Mrs. Cabanne had filed against the St. Louis Transit Company. Neubert alleges that he was driving in a two-wheeled one-horse cart on the Clayton road near Kraft street. The Clayton road was closed than for a distance of 506 feet to permit the Missouri Facific Railroad Company to make excavations. The railroad company, according to the allegations, had erected a temporary roadway across the excavation, which was four feet high, nine feet wide, and 700 feet long. It was while driving on this temporary roadway that Neubert met Mr. and Mrs. Cabanne.

The plaintiff said be was driving a spirited horse, and had an infant child in his lap. He alleges that the defendants commanded him to get out of the way, He replied: "Please hold back, I've two bables here, one in the cart with me, and the horse is a baby, too."

"Get out of the way, we're in a hurry to go to court." was the reply they are alleged to have made. Then the plaintiff charges they ran into him unnecessarily.

ST. LOUIS COUNTY PARAGRAPHS.

The Perry Hotel at Sixty-sixth street and Olive Street road, was sold at a fore-closure sale in Clayton yesterday together with a piece of property belonging to Mrs. Perry in Glendale. It was bid in by a representative of Zach W Tinker for $12-00. The mortgage debt was $11.00.

The County Court held a committee meeting yesterday to receive a proposition from H. D. Wyllie of Chicago, who offered to erect a septic tank for the reduction of the sewage in Clarton for $2.79. His proposition was practically accepted. It is expected that the new plant will be installed by or before the middle of July.

The directors of the Central public school have decided to build their annual plenic at Both's Grove, on the Olive Street road, next Wednesday, instead of at Creve Coeur, as had been originally announced.

The Suburban Supply Company filed The Suburian Supply Company area articles of incorporation in the Recorder's effice in Clayton yesterday. The capital stock is $10.000, one-half of which is paid up. It is divided into 120 shares. Thomas J. Heath of Old Orchard holds 70 shares. William R. Heath 10 shares. Thomas Medanish of St. Louis 25 shares and Thomas L. Medanish of St. Louis 5 shares. The object of the company is to conduct a coal, wood, ice and general merchandise business.

Rudolph Pagenstecher, town collector of Kirkwood, has issued notice to dog owners, who are delinquent in the payment of their taxes, that he wil begin prosecu-tions against them after next Tuesday.

Marriage licenses were issued in Clayton vesterday to William Archer of No. 3906 Laclede avenue and Tillie Helber-ger of No. 4416 Baston avenue and William H. Kraemer of Terre Haute and Grace Langhardt of Ste Genevieve. Both couples were married by Judge Wilson.

A man's cane, a box containing some lunch and a small bundle of clothing were found on the banks of the Meysenberg pond near Clayton yesterday afternoon and the report was spread that some person had committed suicide.

Presented by Mr. Guy Lindsley, his pupils and several professional actors. Seats 25c, 50c, 75c. On sale at Olympic Theatre on and after Thursday, May 22.
